Do you like to live life on the edge? So this restaurant is of family member is the won (ton) for you. After passing through the impressively ostensible entrance (Koi Carp Pond, gigantic wood-filled wooden doors flanked by a stone dragon) and in the slightly cold dining room, you are treated with food that stands out. "Thymus or a little disappointing - with apparently nothing in the middle. Duck's croquettes were oily nauseating, the spring rolls were free and the filling for pork barbecue divergence was scarce and dry. But the boiled black-cooked gut was a gently seasoned and impressively delicate dish, while shrimp dumplings were pulled and excellent. A main course of the "Chairman Mao Porco Belly" ended up being intensely rich and melted soft. With its talents in the kitchen, the totalous downtime was clearly wasted in poetry. Is this a place for a delightful delicious meal? No. Is it possible to have delicious food here? Yup. But it will involve a little chance and a harvest. Randall Skygazer Fanfare D.
